POSITION DESCRIPTION

This position functions as the Assistant Chief of the Office of State Audits and evaluations (OSAE) unit. The incumbent manages the day-to-day operations, including long-range planning, directing, and coordinating a variety of complex, technical, financial and performance audits, evaluations, and special studies of governmental entities; ensuring audits and evaluations are conducted in accordance with applicable Auditing Standards and OSAE's internal policies and procedures.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Applicants must meet the following minimum qualifications:

Either I

Must be a State civil service employee with permanent civil service status or who previously had permanent status in the State civil service.

Or II

Must be a current or former employee of the Legislature, with two or more consecutive years as defined in Government code § 18990.

Or III

Must be a current or former non-elected exempt employee of the Executive Branch with two or more consecutive years (excluding those positions for which salaries are set by statute) as defined in Government Code § 18992.

Or IV

Must be a person retired from the United States military, honorably discharged from active military duty with a service-connected disability, or honorably discharged from active duty as defined in Government Code § 18991.

KNOWLEDGE AND ABILITIES

Applicants must demonstrate the ability to perform high administrative and policy – influencing functions effectively. Such overall ability requires possession of most of the following more specific knowledge and abilities:

(1) Knowledge of the organization and functions of California State Government including the organization and practices of the Legislature and the Executive Branch; principles, practices, and trends of public administration, organization, and management; techniques of organizing and motivating groups; program development and evaluation; methods of administrative problem solving; principles and practices of policy formulation and development; and personnel management techniques; the department's or agency's Equal Employment Opportunity Program objectives; and a manager's role in the Equal Employment Opportunity Program.

(2) Ability to plan, organize, and direct the work of multidisciplinary professional and administrative staff; analyze administrative policies, organization, procedures and practices; integrate the activities of a diverse program to attain common goals; gain the confidence and support of top level administrators and advise them on a wide range of administrative matters; develop cooperative working relationships with representatives of all levels of government, the public, and the Legislature and Executive branches; analyze complex problems and recommend effective courses of action; and prepare and review reports; and effectively contribute to the department's or agency's Equal Employment Opportunity objectives.

These knowledge and abilities are expected to be obtained from the following kinds of experience with substantial participation in the formulation, operation and/or evaluation of program policies (experience may have been paid or volunteer; in State service, other government settings, or in a private organization):

CEA Level 1. Supervisory/administrative experience in a line or staff activity, including the execution and/or evaluation of program policies.

CEA Levels 2 and 3. Broad administrative or program manager experience with substantial participation in the formulation, operation, and/or evaluation of program policies.

CEA Levels 4 and 5. Extensive managerial and program administrative experience which has included substantial responsibility for a combination of management functions such as program planning; policy formulation; organization coordination and control; and fiscal and personnel management. Where high technical professional qualifications are of primary importance in performing the duties of a given CEA position, then the above required experience may have been in a staff capacity exercising professional skills to influence and contribute to program, policy, and methods of providing those professional services. Primary examples are medical doctors and attorneys.

DESIRABLE QUALIFICATION(S)

Broad administrative or program manager experience with substantial participation in the formulation, operation, and evaluation of program policies.

These knowledge and abilities are expected to be obtained from broad administrative or managerial experience comparable in level of responsibility to Staff Services Manager III or above with substantial participation in the formulation, operation, and/or evaluation of program policies. Experience may have been paid or volunteer, in state service, other government settings, or in a private organization.

In addition, to evaluating each candidate's relative ability to perform leadership and policy influencing functions effectively, as demonstrated by quality and breadth of experience, the following factors will provide the basis for competitively evaluating each candidate:

- * Proven management capabilities, including broad technical and management level experience in the principles and standards of independent financial audits, and an understanding of the techniques and processes used in reviewing program activities and performance as well as possession of a Certified Public Accountant license.
- * Strong leadership and management team experience demonstrating an ability to set goals and expectations, encourage leadership and initiative at all levels, and use sound judgment in managing a multi-disciplined team reviewing complex and varied programs during the performance of financial audits, performance audits and evaluations.
- * Ability to communicate effectively with others as demonstrated by strong written and verbal communication skills, strong negotiating skills, and particularly the ability to represent the DOF effectively both internally, before the legislature, and with the public.
- * Knowledge of principles of organization, fiscal and human resource management, and the Department's Equal Employment Opportunity Program objectives.
- * Demonstrated ability to coach and mentor employees to create a work environment that stimulates learning, encourages growth, and recognizes individual achievements to ensure peak performance.
- * Demonstrated ability to work effectively under intense pressure, and the capacity to make high-level decisions in a fast-paced and changing environment.

DESIRABLE CHARACTERISTICS

Department of Finance has a strong history of laudably fulfilling its responsibilities. That history of performance has garnered the Department respect from successive Administrations and Legislatures and earned it a reputation as a venerable institution. That foundation of this reputation is a set of core values that guide the actions of the employees who, collectively, are the Department of Finance. Those core values are:

- * Integrity - Consistently adhere to the duty to execute the mission and responsibilities of the Department of Finance while advancing the goals of the Administration.
- * Expertise - Be a reliable source of accurate information and sound fiscal and policy advice.
- * Teamwork - Work together collaboratively and in recognition of the contribution each makes to the common purpose of serving the Department, the Administration, and the State.
- * Respect - Recognize the validity of other points of view and treat others with civility.
- * Problem Solving – Strive to find practical and effective solutions to achieving desired goals.
